DAY ONE

A Time of Hardship

Long ago, before the message of Islam, life in parts of Arabia was very hard for many people. Some people were unfair and did not care for the poor and weak. This time is called Jahiliyyah, the time of ignorance.

Baby Muhammad ﷺ

A kind mother, Lady Amina, gave birth to a baby named Muhammad ﷺ. Unfortunately, his father, Abdullah, had passed away just before the baby was born. When Muhammad ﷺ was only six years old Amina, his mother, also died.

Loved and Protected

His grandfather, Abdul-Muttalib, cared for him for a short while. But soon, his grandfather also passed away. The young Muhammad ﷺ had to move again and went to live with his uncle Abu Talib.

As a boy, Muhammad ﷺ helped take care of sheep and as he grew up he became known for being honest and kind. People called him as-Sadiq and al-Ameen (the truthful and the trustworthy one).

Khadija ﷺ

A noble lady named Khadija ﷺ noticed Muhammad ﷺ's honesty. She asked him to help on a trading journey. Later they married, and she supported him a great deal.

Prophet ﷺ at 40 – The First Revelation

When Muhammad ﷺ was 40 years old, the angel Jibrail (Gabriel) came to him in the Cave of Hira and gave him the first words of the Qur'an. He was surprised and a little scared, but a wise man named Waraqah told him this was a true angel and that Muhammad ﷺ would be a prophet to the whole of humanity.

The Message – One God

Prophet Muhammad ﷺ taught people about Tawheed – that there is only One Creator, Allah. He asked people to stop worshipping idols and to be honest, fair, and kind to others.

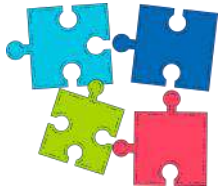

Hard Times – Hostility

Many people did not like this new message. Some leaders were unkind to the Prophet ﷺ and the new Muslims. They tried to bribe him with wealth and power, but he kept teaching the Qur'an with patience and love.

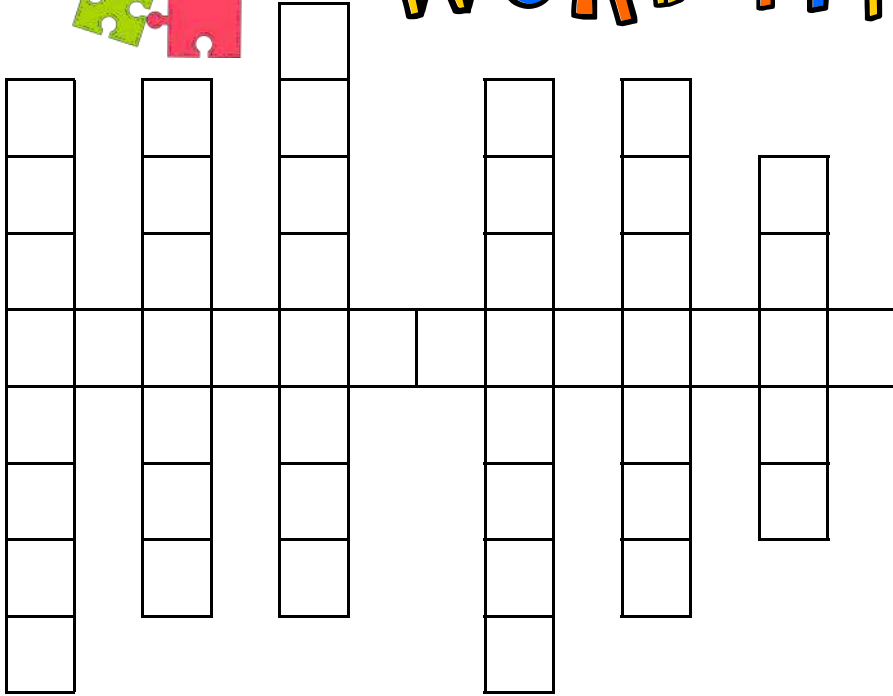

Boycott

When the Prophet ﷺ and the Muslims refused to stop giving the Message of Allah the leaders of Makkah became very angry. They stopped trading with the Prophet's family (Banu Hashim) and the Muslims. The leaders of Makkah also asked everyone to stop selling food to the Muslims.

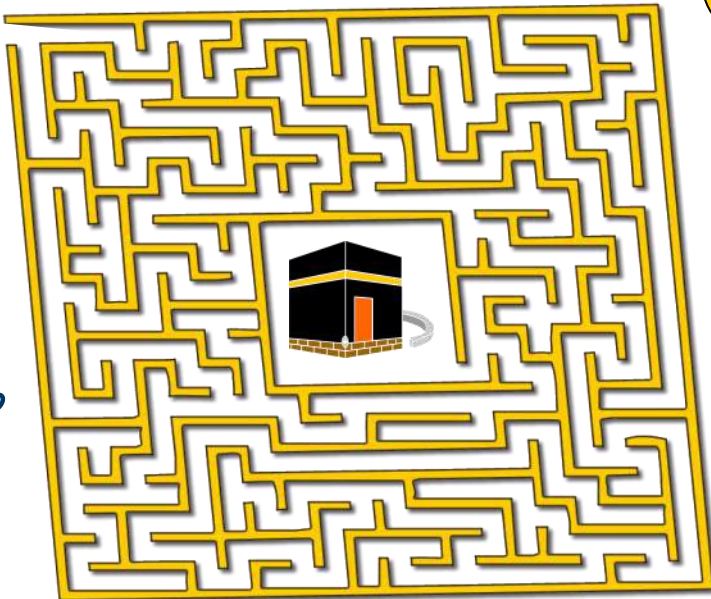

This was a very hard time and the Muslims suffered from hunger and bad health. The boycott lasted for almost three years and everyone suffered.
